

I work in the music entertainment industry and use wireless microphones and monitoring for entertainment

All the wireless devices that we use are in the areas that you are calling "White Spaces" if PDAs, cordless phones, wireless laptops, and Wireless Access Points are allowed to take up this space it will all but eliminate my ability to provide this service with any reliability

Please protect this crucial airspace that my industry uses